INFORMATION SHEET

*You must be an NRA member to apply for membership to the Waverly Gun Club. You will be expected to keep your membership current with the NRA and will be asked to provide proof of membership to the gun club before going forward. Applications are available through the clubs secretary.

*When you return your application to the Waverly Gun Club you need to provide a certified background check to the club along with your application. Failure to do so will delay your application. This is the applicants' responsibility to obtain this from the local authorities. We suggest that you have this sent directly to the gun club.

*Membership dues are due annually on January 1st but no later than April 1st of each calendar year, failure to do so will result in membership privileges being lost. (Must re-apply as a new member with any new fees applying.) Current fees are Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for initial application and an additional Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00) as annual dues. All fees are non-refundable.

Upon receiving your application and background check you can expect:

*Contact from the new membership committee and you will need to attend a meeting. At this meeting the current membership reserves the right to ask questions of the applicant in regards to their application to the Waverly Gun Club. The membership shall take a vote as to approve the membership or not. The Waverly Gun Club does not have to provide any reason for denying membership privileges.

*Upon membership being granted the new member must attend Annual Safety Training in regards to the rules and regulations of the Waverly Gun Club. This enables members to use the facilities. NO USE OF THE FACILITIES IS ALLOWED WITHOUT THIS TRAINING.

*Volunteer work hours are part of being a member. They are scheduled over the calendar year. Each member is responsible for a minimal of 16 hours per calendar year. If you are scheduled for work hours and are unable to attend it is your responsibility to find your own replacement to fill in for your hours. The current fine for not attending scheduled work hours are $25.00 for the first four hours.

*Any violations of the Waverly Gun Clubs rules and regulations in regards to firearm safety or use of its facilities may result in loss of membership. These include but are not limited to the following: Failure to follow sign-in procedures, Firearm violations or unlawful use of a firearm, Gun handling violations and too many guest shooting, etc.

I have received a copy of this information sheet along with the application and understand that this does not provide me membership privileges.
